What else was FBI doing at time king was killed and just before? Checking innocent phone calls to be paid for by a preacher and setting up special files on these clandestine records of intrusion into personal rights and on the caller.